About Us

Starting out in a small shack in 2001 selling mostly crabs and shrimp, we've evolved into a full service seafood market, general store and gift shop. With over 40 varieties of seafood stocked daily, we can also bring you hundreds more with only a day's notice! Everything from Hawaiian fish, live lobsters from Maine to turtle meat and live crawfish from Louisiana, we can satisfy all of your seafood cravings. In addition, we also carry a wide variety of seafood brooding, sauces, marinades, seasonings & cookbooks.

With our new expanded facility now conveniently located just minutes from I-95, our new location allows for ample parking, clean restrooms and the ability for you to enjoy something from Jack's Cafe on-site accompanied by your favorite beer or something different from our wide variety of import, specialty and Caribbean beers. Browse around our gift shop for lake inspired gifts and home décor in addition to souvenirs and novelty items. Our general store features local wines, country cheese cut right off the wheel, old fashioned long neck sodas, Amish candy & nuts, fresh baked goods, ice, propane exchange and so much more!

With over 30 years of combined experience in the seafood, restaurant and catering industries, the owners of Capt. Jack's brings you the absolute best in local, exotic and gourmet seafood. We take great pride in offering you the best quality, selection and value. In addition, we offer you the most friendly and knowledgeable staff and outstanding customer service.
